

Salt Lake City 2022
The Revolutionary Potential of the Social Sciences

Training Program Exhibit

Society for Applied Anthropology 82nd Annual Meeting
Sheraton Salt Lake City Hotel - March 22-26

Exhibit Date: March 25, 2022 - Exhibit Time: 8:30-12:00pm

The Training Program Exhibit is a wonderful opportunity to inform students and colleagues about graduate programs, internship opportunities, field schools, and organizations that work with applied social scientists. This exhibit will give you an opportunity to present your program to the more than 1,500 attendees. We expect considerable dialogue among the exhibitors regarding recruitment, exchange opportunities, and field research. The Exhibits will be centrally located where there will be heavy traffic. You might consider having currently enrolled students at the table as well as a faculty representative. Students profit from both perspectives.

The fee for exhibiting is $150 and the Society will provide the following:

- one 6' table
- easel stand and poster board if needed
- free 1/8 page ad in our Meeting Program ($75 value)

Ad Deadline: January 15
