

CALL FOR PAPERS

APPLIED SOCIAL SCIENCE RESPONSE TO THE COVID-19 PANDEMIC

Human Organization seeks contributions for a special issue highlighting the way in which applied anthropology and related social sciences are responding to the COVID-19 pandemic. Manuscripts should clearly address the potential contributions applied social scientists can make to the creation and implementation of policies and programming to alleviate the detrimental impact of the pandemic at local, national, and global levels.

Potential areas of interest include, but are not limited to, the impact of the pandemic on the following:

- Global markets, local economies, commodification of basic resources
- Educational sector and expansion of online teaching/learning
- Food insecurity and food systems
- Health inequalities/health care provision
- Especially vulnerable groups (e.g., immigrants and refugees, minority groups, the transgender community, incarcerated individuals)
- Social relations (social distancing, isolation, intimate partner violence)
- Policies and politics

Manuscript Specifications:

Manuscripts should conform to the overall guidelines of the journal. See
