Anthropology of Higher Education TIG

Newsletter

By James H. McDonald, Ph.D., University of Montevallo

As we inch ever closer to the SfAAs in Portland, I am happy to report that the Anthropology of Higher Education TIG has 25 sessions and 94 presentations. Our current affiliate count is 564, which is truly remarkable.

Brian Foster and crew are working on another book volume based on session papers tentatively entitled, “Paths to the Future of Higher Education.”
